Assured Shorthold Tenancy Agreement

[This document should not be used to create a tenancy where the initial fixed term is to be for more than three years;
you should consult a Solicitor, as such an agreement must be created by Deed]

*Assured Shorthold Tenancy AgreementIMPORTANT

- This agreement contains the terms and obligations of the tenancy. It sets out the promises made by the landlord to the tenant and by the tenant to the landlord. These promises will be legally binding once the agreement has been signed by both parties and then dated. You should read it carefully to ensure it contains everything you want and nothing that you are not prepared to agree to. Whilst every attempt has been made to compose this agreement using plain and intelligible language, it inevitably contains some legal terms or references.

If either party does not understand this agreement, or anything in it, it is strongly suggested you ask for an explanation before signing it. You might consider consulting a Solicitor, Citizens Advice Bureau or Housing Advice Centre.

If completing this Agreement by hand make sure all information inserted is readable

The Name and Address of the Letting Agent (if any) who arranged this tenancy is :-

W J MEADE PROPERTY MANAGEMENT & LETTING
2 - 3 BROADWAY PARADE

LONDON E4 9LG

DEFINITIONS The intention of providing this list of definitions is to help explain or clarify some terms or expressions that may be found in this tenancy agreement. It is not meant to be an exhaustive or complete list. In the event of a dispute, only a court can decide on a definitive interpretation or meaning of any clause, or of any part of this agreement.

The premises	The premises include all, or any parts of the dwelling-house, gardens, paths, fences, boundaries or other outbuildings which form part of the let. Where the premises form only part of another property (e.g. in a block of flats), the letting includes the use, in common with others, of communal access ways and other similar facilities.
Binding Date	A tenancy agreement is not, technically, a legally binding contract until it has been "executed" by being Dated, after both parties (or their authorised representatives) have signed; although it might be possible for either party to take legal action against the other if they withdraw prior to this date.
Landlord	A person or persons who at any relevant time own, or have a formal interest in, the premises that gives them the right to possession of the premises.
Tenant	A person, or persons, who at any relevant time are entitled to occupy the premises under the terms of this tenancy agreement.
Joint and several liability	The expression joint and several liability means that jointly the tenants are liable for the payment of all rents and all liabilities falling upon the tenants during the tenancy as well as any breach of the Agreement. Individually each tenant is responsible for payment of all rent and all liabilities falling upon the tenant as well as any breach of the Agreement until all payments have been made in full. A maximum of four people can be such joint tenants.
Superior landlord	People, or persons, to whom the ownership or interest in the Leasehold premises might revert in the fullness of time, following the expiry of the term of any head, or superior, lease.
Head or Superior lease	Means a Lease (if any) under which the landlord himself holds, or owns the premises and which contains the obligations of which the landlord, or his tenants in turn, may be bound.
Fixtures and fittings	References to fixtures and fittings relate to any of the landlord's furniture, furnishings, sanitaryware, decorative features, white goods, other equipment or any floor, ceiling or wall coverings and include anything listed in any Inventory and/or Schedule of Condition supplied.
The term or the tenancy	References to the term or the tenancy include any extension or continuation, or any contractual periodic tenancy which may arise following the end of the period set out in clause 1.9

Assured Shorthold Tenancy Agreement

(security) Deposit held as "agent for the landlord"	This means that at the end of the tenancy, the agent (subject to any other over-riding contractual arrangements) should follow the landlord's instructions regarding the apportionment of deductions from the tenant's deposit, e.g. for costs or compensation for damage, or for breaches of, or failure to comply with, the tenant's obligations.
(security) Deposit held as "stakeholder"	This means that at the end of the tenancy, the two parties to the tenancy agreement should jointly agree on the apportionment of any deductions from the deposit, e.g. for costs or compensation for damage, or for breaches of, or failure to comply with, the tenant's obligations. Any portion in dispute should not be paid over to, or taken by, either party until and unless mutual agreement is reached, or unless an appropriate third party makes a decision.
Consent of the landlord or his agent	Where the consent of the Landlord or his Agent is required for the tenant to carry out some action it is strongly recommended that where such consent is granted, the tenant obtain confirmation in writing so as to avoid misunderstandings or disputes at a later date.
Water charges	This includes charges, rates or costs relating to water, sewerage and environmental services
Utilities	This includes charges, rates or costs relating to telephone, gas, electricity, oil and Council Tax.
Masculine &amp; feminine and singular &amp; plural	Any reference to either one gender includes the other and any reference in the singular shall include the plural, if appropriate.
Agent	Any letting or managing agent, or any other duly authorised person, notified to the tenant, who is acting from time to time on behalf of the landlord.
Month / Monthly	Means a calendar month.
Inventory and or Schedule of Condition	This refers to any document prepared by the landlord, the agent or an inventory clerk and provided to the tenant detailing the landlord's fixtures, fittings, furnishings, equipment etc., the decor and condition of the premises generally. Such a document may subsequently be relied upon at the end of the tenancy in assessing damage or compensation for damage (over and above fair wear & tear) and so should be checked carefully at commencement of the tenancy. Any significant mistakes, misdescriptions or other amendments should be notified to the landlord or his agent as soon as practicable after the tenancy starts. In order to avoid misunderstandings or disputes later, it is strongly recommended that this notification be in writing and a copy kept for future reference.
ICE	This means the Independent Case Examiner in respect of tenancy deposit disputes

GUIDANCE NOTES FOR TENANTS

Welcome to your Assured Shorthold Tenancy Agreement. It is an important document as it will govern your relationship both with the Landlord of your new property and with the letting or managing Agent for the whole time you are actually in residence. As such you should read the document through carefully and raise any queries with the letting Agent who gave you this document.

At the same time, please be aware that you have the right to seek independent advice if you wish either from your solicitor or other advice agency.

Please ensure that you receive a copy of an Inventory making note of condition, cleanliness and contents of the property. If W J Meade or your landlord advises that an inventory has not been prepared then it is in your very best interest and to protect your dilapidation's deposit paid, that you take some time in preparing your own within the first week of taking occupation. The list you prepare must be as detailed as possible, making a note of any obvious signs of wear & tear, damages, general condition, and cleanliness of each room. Do not forget to mention white goods, carpets, curtains, general decoration etc. As soon as you have prepared this list, sign and date it, make a copy for your retention and forward a copy to your landlord. Where W J Meade are acting as the Landlord's managing agent, a copy should be sent to us in order that we may hold this on file until the end of your tenancy.

You will also be given copies of the following documents, receipt of which is acknowledged on the final page of the Agreement itself:

- 'How to Rent' guide produced by HM Government.
- Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) for your property.
- A current Gas Safety Certificate for your property – if there is a gas supply.
- Electrical Installation Conditions Report for your property.
- Details of the scheme with which your Deposit will be registered, including details as to how you will recover your Deposit on your departure.
- A check-list of the key Deposit registration information generally described as 'Prescribed Information'.

5. GENERAL      ALL PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT SHOULD READ THESE CLAUSES

Re-instatement of property rendered uninhabitable

Assured Shorthold Tenancy Agreement

- 5.1 If the Premises are destroyed or rendered uninhabitable by fire or any other risk against which the Landlord may have effected insurance then rent shall cease to be payable until the Premises are reinstated and rendered habitable unless the insurance monies are irrecoverable in whole or in part by reason of any act or omission on the part of the Tenant. Should the Premises not become habitable again within a period of three months from the date of the incident, then either party may give notice to the other party to immediately determine this Agreement. Nothing in this clause compels the Landlord to provide alternative accommodation to the Tenant.
- 5.2 The Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 does not apply to this agreement.
- 5.3 This agreement is subject to all laws and statutes affecting assured shorthold tenancies. If a court decides that some part of the agreement is invalid or unenforceable, the rest of the agreement will still be valid and binding on all parties.

Notices

- 5.4 The Tenant is required to give the Landlord two clear months' notice (of their intent to remain or vacate the property), in writing prior to the end of the Fixed Term. Once the fixed term of this agreement expires, if a new fixed term cannot be agreed, the tenancy will continue as a contractual periodic tenancy. In the event this Tenancy becomes a contractual periodic tenancy, the Landlord agrees that the Tenant can terminate the tenancy by giving the Landlord not less than one months' notice in writing.
- The Tenant agrees that the Landlord can terminate the tenancy by giving the Tenant not less than two months' notice in writing as per Housing Act 1988 section 21(1) and (4) as amended by section 194 and paragraph 103 of Schedule 11 to the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 and section 98(2) and (3) of the Housing Act 1996.
- Any notices authorised required or served in accordance with this Agreement or under Act of Parliament relating to the Tenancy must be served either:
- In accordance with the provisions as to the service of notices in Section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925 or;
- By first class post addressed to the Tenant at the Tenanted Premises or last known address or left addressed to the tenant at the Tenanted Premises or last known address.
- This clause shall apply to any notices authorised or required to be served under this Agreement or under any Act of Parliament relating to the tenancy.

For the purpose of Section 47 and 48 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987 the address at which any notices (including notices in any proceedings) may be served on to the Landlord by the Tenant, is as set out on page two of this Agreement, until the Tenant is notified in writing to the contrary.

Surrender of the tenancy by the tenant

- 5.5 Strictly with the landlord's or his agents prior written consent and subject to certain conditions that may include the landlord's reasonable costs associated with the re-letting of the premises, the tenant might be allowed to surrender or give up this tenancy before it could otherwise lawfully be ended.

- FORFEITURE - RIGHT OF RE-ENTRY

Important If either party to this agreement are unsure of their rights or require further clarification of this clause they should consult a solicitor or their local Citizens Advice Bureau.

The law (Protection from Eviction Act 1977) gives tenants protection against arbitrary or immediate termination of their rights of occupation and the law restricts a landlord's rights, except in certain circumstances, to evict from, or prevent a tenant from living in, premises subject to an existing tenancy agreement without first obtaining a court order.

Assured Shorthold Tenancy Agreement

For the landlord to commence legal proceedings to repossess the premises based on a breach of the tenancy (where the tenant had failed to remedy the breach in good time), which might result in the court evicting the tenant or issuing a court order terminating the tenancy earlier than might otherwise be lawful; the law requires that the tenancy agreement contains a Forfeiture clause, sometimes referred to as a Right of Re-entry. Clause 5.7 is such a clause.

For the avoidance of doubt:- In order to exercise his legal rights under this clause, 5.7, a landlord will first need to obtain a court order

5.7 If at any time the rent, or any part of the rent, shall remain unpaid for 14 days after becoming due, whether formally demanded or not, or if any major agreement or major obligation on the tenant's part is not complied with, or if any of the circumstances mentioned in the following Grounds;

Ground 8. (that both at the time of notice of the intention to commence proceedings and at the time of the court proceedings there is (a) at least eight weeks rent unpaid where rent is payable weekly or fortnightly; (b) at least two months rent is unpaid if rent is payable monthly; (c) at least one quarters rent is more than three months in arrears if rent is payable quarterly; (c) at least three months rent is more than three months in arrears if rent is payable yearly), as set out in Part I of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 (as amended by the Housing Act 1996) or,

Ground 10. (that both at the time of notice of the intention to commence proceedings and at the time of the court proceedings there is some rent outstanding),

Ground 11. (that there is a history of persistently being behind with rent),

Ground 12. (that the tenant has broken one or more of his obligations under the tenancy agreement),

Ground 13. (that the condition of the premises or the common parts has deteriorated because of the behaviour of the tenant, or any other person living there),

Ground 14. (that the tenant or someone living or visiting the premises has been guilty of conduct which is, or is likely to cause, a nuisance or annoyance to neighbours; Or, that a person residing or visiting the premises has been convicted of using the premises, or allowing it to be used, for immoral or illegal purposes or has committed an arrestable offence in or in the locality of, the premises),

Ground 15. (that the condition of the furniture has deteriorated because it has been ill treated by the tenant or someone living at the premises),

Ground 17. (that the landlord was induced to grant the tenancy by a false statement made knowingly or recklessly by either the tenant or a person acting at the tenant's instigation), as set out in Part II of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 (as amended by the Housing Act 1996) shall arise, then the landlord may re-enter the property and the tenancy shall be terminated. Any such action will not restrict or limit any other legal rights, which the landlord may have in pursuing the tenant for breaches of the tenant's obligations under this agreement.
